Notice a woman when she receives a telegram. How it does scare her! She trembles like a dish of jelly, and imagines all sorts of things. Her husband has fallen down the hatchway at his warehouse. Her Johnny has gone out sailing, and is drowned. Her sister Mary has been scalded to death. Nothing short of a fatal accident quite fills the bill of her imagination. When she finally summons courage to tear open the envelope, she finds a message from her husband warning her that he will bring a customer home to dinner; and she immediately calls her children together and instructs them not to ask twice for raspberries, as there's just enough to go around and give the visitor a few extra.

Red ants may be banished from a pantry or store-room by strewing the shelves with a small quantity of cloves, either whole or ground. We use the former, as not being so likely to get into food placed upon the shelves. The cloves should be removed occasionally, as, after a time, they lose their strength and efficacy.

The following drink, for relieving sickness of the stomach, is said to be very palatable and agreeable: Beat up one egg very well—say for twenty minutes; then add fresh milk, one pint, water, one pint; sugar, to make it palatable. Boil, and let it cool. Drink when cold. If it becomes curds and whey, it is useless.

Flies may be effectually disposed of without the use of poison. Take half a teaspoonful of black pepper, in powder, one teaspoonful of brown sugar, and one teaspoonful of cream. Mix them well together, and place them in a room, on a plate, where flies are troublesome, and they will soon disappear.

Take a new flower pot, wash it clean, wrap in a wet cloth, and set over butter, will keep it as hard as if on ice. Milk, if put into an earthen can, or even a tin one, will keep sweet for a long time, if well wrapped in a wet cloth.

Common soda is excellent for scouring tin, as it will not scratch the tin, and will make it look like new. Apply with a piece of moistened newspaper, and polish with a dry piece. Wood ashes are a good substitute.

To cure bunions, use pulverized saltpeter and sweet oil. Obtain at a druggist's five or six cents' worth of saltpeter; put into a bottle with sufficient olive oil to dissolve it: shake up well, and rub the inflamed joints night and morning, and more frequently if painful.

Mix a little carbonate of soda with the water in which flowers are immersed, and it will preserve them for a fortnight. Common saltpeter is also a very good preservative.

Surely, says a pithy writer, Shakspeare must have had a prophetic vision of the nineteenth century, when he threw off that exquisite description of "purblind Argus, all eyes and no sight."

The true physiological way of treating burns is to at once exclude the air, with cotton batting, flour, scraped potato, or anything that is handiest.

A poultice of fresh tea-leaves, moistened with water, will cure a stye on the eye-lid.

For earache, dissolve asafetida in water, warm a few drops and drop in the ear: then cork the ear with wool.

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 22, 1881.

AND still the president keeps on improving.

SENATOR LOGAN was in New York a few days ago, the guest of Vice-President Arthur.

GOV. CULLOM and his daughters leave Springfield this evening for a pleasure trip to Colorado. They expect to be gone about two or three weeks.

THE monotonous grind at Albany is still going on, and everybody is getting heartily sick and disgusted with it. The supporters of Mr. Conkling cannot but realize that their favorite is beaten (as, indeed, he was from the beginning of the contest) and the most appropriate thing they can do is to accept the situation, elect some other good Republican and go home.

THEY call him Mr. Pocketbookwalter in Ohio now.

LYDIA THOMPSON, having reached the years of discretion, has put on long dresses and taken the management of a theater in London.

OUT in Nebraska they have it that Moses was an advocate of woman suffrage, because Miriam was permitted to lead the band.

THE Atlanta Constitution, a Democratic paper, complains mournfully that "the Democrats of Ohio never did know how to manage a bar'l."

AT the rate his old chickens are coming home to roost, the Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio will be a very unhappy man before the campaign is over.

ST. LOUIS is a remarkable place. A cat was sunstruck there the other day, and went and leaned her head against a block of ice until her temperature was reduced to its normal state. Chicago can't get the best of St. Louis on a good story.—New York Commercial.

THERE are now 400 creameries in Iowa. The value of their machinery, not including their buildings, is upward of $1,000,000. New York, once the boasted source of the best butter in the United States, now looks to Iowa for that commodity, while she furnishes the oleomargarine.

PRESIDENT GARFIELD and Judge Jerry Black, the noted Democratic lawyer, are owners of a large farm lying just across the river from Washington, in Virginia. They received it as fees for legal work, except a small portion, which has been purchased since the attack on the president.

THE National Republican, which has been the leader in opposition to the Administration, proposes the following sensible platform for the Republican party:

"1. Oblivion of past differences between Republicans.

"2. A union of all who are opposed to Bourbon restoration in the Nation.

"3. Elections by the people instead of by the great corporations."

THE career of Mr. William B. Strong, just elected to the presidency of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad company, at a salary of $25,000 a year, shows the value of an intelligent singleness of purpose. Not many years ago Mr. Strong was a station agent in Rock county, this state. His devotion to his work attracted the attention of the officers and he was rapidly promoted. He was determined to know all there was to know about the railroad business, and the result was that he mastered it in every department. His practical knowledge and his business energy earned the position he now occupies. There is nothing lucky about his success—it is the accomplishment of a determined purpose.—Milwaukee Republican.

THE Chicago correspondent of the Kansas City Times is responsible for the announcement that Mike McDonald is to retire from his present occupation and associates, build a palatial mansion on Michigan avenue, and become respectable. He quotes Mike as saying: "I am getting pretty well along, and my children are growing up about me. I have noticed that nine-tenths of the gamblers who stick to the game die in poor houses. I don't intend that any man shall point me out on the street in rags and want, and say: "There goes Mike McDonald, the gambler." The correspondent then asserts upon investigation he discovered that Mike was honest in his remarks, and that already he has taken steps to sell out his saloon, his gambling house, and all of his interests in gambling houses, build him a house, furnish it in splendor, and live the remainder of his days in respectable associations.

Garfield's Traits.

Johnny Bouquet, in New York Tribune.

Three great loves he had—love of mankind, love of wisdom, and love of work. Anybody could interest him, he was so democratic yet so enthusiastic. A dog, a boy, a tool, a puzzle; they all provoked every fresh faculty. He was not without gallantry, but it was big and motherly. Sympathy produced his sympathy. Not one ounce did he ever add to himself by being feared. Revenge was as foreign to his nature as simulation. Analysis is not his habit; he acquired happiness by universally appreciating others. The nearer home you followed him the more you found him prized. Of course this sort of big apple in congress was underestimated, and I was no exception to the rest, I saw him ever growing, yet it seemed never great, because he never acted great. His arm followed his heart seen, and he threw it around anybody he liked almost unconsciously. He soon forgot scandal and it could prejudice nobody long in his eyes. He failed to be an effective extorter of places and patronage for friends. Grant appointed female postmasters in his district or unknown folks of some old family clews, and it made Garfield look more ludicrous than mad when he said: "They are just standing on their heads up in my district!" Once he burst out at the age of 49: "I suppose I am foolish, but I can't bear to go around with enmities to anybody. There is one man who treats me so outrageously that I thought my self-respect would compel me never to speak to him again. Accordingly when I was passing down —— street a week ago, and he turned the corner I was approaching and came up the same sidewalk I raised my head and felt my nostrils swell, and made ready to go past him, till just as I came opposite to him, something took hold of me, and I crossed over and exclaimed, (——, you old scoundrel, how are you?" It may be singular, but if I had seen him go up and break a giant's back like Samson he could not now be so vivid to me as when he told that incident. It is in my mind the standard portrait of him.

The Feminine Mouth.

A person who has made the feminine mouth the subject of much study, volunteers his conclusions to males with sweethearts. They are as follows:

If her mouth is very small there is not much mind, but overmuch shallow sentiment. If she has a very large mouth she will possess a good brain, but trouble is in kissing it. Large mouths put a man to an artistic test; he will be driven to his wit's end, whether to begin at one corner and conclude at the other, or to make a heroic dash at the middle, and endeavor to reach both corners. But if you are a kissing artist it can be covered nicely enough.

If your sweetheart has a coarsely-formed mouth, she will be sensual, and full of strong, coarse points of character, and will raise a row in the family.

If she has a delicately-formed mouth, with rounded lips, and a velvety color, she will have sensibility and perfection of character, but will not astonish by her brilliancy of conception or execution. It is a good mouth because it is kissable and submissive.

Shun blue-lipped or thin-lipped women. They will bore you to death with literature or women's rights, theorize while you want your dinner, or spoil your temper with their red-hot, scolding tongues.

Scientific Advancement.

Scientific advancement, it has been remarked, has been slower and less noticeable in the care of the sick and the treatment of disease than in any other department of human knowledge. The life or death of a patient is too frequently a mere matter of accident or chance. Some great discoveries, however, have been made and certain remedies are known and used with almost infallible curative results. Such a remedy is TARANTINE where a deranged liver is involved, or where disease of the Bowels, Kidneys or Spleen prevail. Dr. A. J. Stoner, Agent. 3

YOU ought to examine shoes at J. W. Baker's. apr30dtf

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., July 21.—This morning, about 10 o'clock, Miss Jennie Harwood, daughter of a Wabash engineer, attempted to end her mortal existence by taking a dose of carbolic acid. Dr. Vincent and Matthews were at once called, and found the unfortunate girl in an unconscious condition. Antidotes were used, but it cannot yet be determined what will be the result. The doctors think the chances are against her recovery. No cause is given for the rash act, and members of the family claim that, as far as they know, none exists. This morning, a few hours previous to the taking of the poison, she was observed to be unusually cheerful. Future developments may throw light upon what now appears to be a mystery.

NOSES.

Cocked up noses are pert and some say not too civil,
Some have nose like a bear when a cub,
A fine stately nose, may some time hide a devil,
And an angel may beam in a snub,
ut noses of all kinds no matter their shape,
Are attacked some time with disorder,

Yankee Economy.

Since the slaughter of cattle in this country for shipment to Europe has become a business, an industry has been established in Middletown, Conn., for the purpose of working up the large bones which are cut off with the feet. The bones are sawed up by machines particularly adapted to the purpose, and the solid portions are made into buttons and knife-handles, the knuckle joints ground up, and with the dust from the saws, sold for a fertilizer, and the small pieces of hard bone granulated and used by gun and tool manufacturers in case-hardening. The bones are used while fresh, as they soon begin to color, and articles made of the stained bone would not be marketable. The buttons, when made from the fresh bone, are whiter than ivory, and are sold under the name of "Sitka ivory." This one establishment received from New York during the last year no less than 1,200,000 ox shins, and the demand has increased to such an extent that the price has risen within a year from $21 to $32 per ton; but even at the latter price, a handsome margin is left for the manufacturer.

THE New York Economist does not think the proposed gift to Mrs. Garfield as objectionable as it is regarded in some quarters. On the contrary it applauds the act in the following emphatic language:

The gift of the New York Chamber of Commerce to Mrs. Garfied is right royal, not only in the princely amount of the sum spontaneously suggested and almost as spontaneously collected, but in the largeness of feeling, the nobility of sentiment and the tender thoughtfulness that inspired it. It was not enough for these money princes to insure the future of the president's wife, but they must at once relieve his mind of such care and anxiety as might trouble the doubtful hours that are to intervene between his present condition and its ultimate results, whether favorable or otherwise, by letting him know that, in any event, the loved ones were well provided for. No more touching incident has occurred in connection with the striking down of the president than that of these bustling business men stopping for a moment in their eager pursuit of money to open their hearts to the more generous impulses of human nature. The whole affair smacks of the soil. It could only take place in this country. The American heart is about as large as that organ is found anywhere, and when it opens to a noble prompting it is in a manner that leaves no doubt of the stuff of which it is made.

CHICAGO, July 21.—A pest that resembles the army worm and goes by that name, though substantial difference between the two are discernible, has made its appearances in the oat fields of Illinois. The fall wheat was seriously damaged by the severity of the winter and the spring wheat was retarded by the lateness of the season. The farmers have had to plow up their wheat fields to a large extent and sow them with other crops in order to get anything from the soil, and now comes the army worm and devours the oats. The worm is chiefly found in the northern part of the state. The rapidity with which it works is shown in the statement of a correspondent that a field of forty acres of oats was destroyed in forty-eight hours. The worms appear to be governed by considerations that are unfathomable, for they will completely destroy one field of oats and leave another field, separated only by a rail fence untouched. Unfortunately, however, the fields left untouched are not very numerous. In the fields that are ravaged the worms discriminate between the tender and succulent stalks and those that are comparatively old and dry. The latter they avoid. Estimates of the loss cannot be made with any degree of accuracy, as the worms are still at work, and nobody knows what they may accomplish before they get through. It is impossible to tell exactly how much harm they have done in the fields they have visited, because as just stated they do not destroy every stalk, and not till the crop is harvested will they know how much in the ravaged fields was too dry to suit them. But it is certain that the damage is immense, and in Will county it is believed that it cannot fall below 1,000,000 bushels, and if the worms move faster than the oats ripen the loss will exceed that. Although oats are the favorite food the worms will not go hungry when they can find none of this grain. In default of this grain they attack young and juicy cornstalks.

CHICAGO, July 21.—The Evening Journal's Des Moines special says: The army worm is making terrible havoc in the oats fields of Iowa. The harvesting of small grain has begun in some territories, and the crops which have been gathered in will fall short of the actual seed planted in the spring.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 21.—Information received here at the military headquarters states that all the employes of the Navajo Indian agency have fled from Fort Defiance to Fort Wingate for protection. The Navajos are getting more dissatisfied daily, and have threatened death to Indian Agent Galch Eastman should he persist in keeping his place as Indian agent. The Navajos say that under the management of Col. Edward Hatch, whom they know, and in whom they have great confidence, they are satisfied, and promised to keep quiet if Capt. Bennet, of the 9th cavalry is restored to them as agent. It is the opinion of the military authorities and of well-informed persons that unless Eastman leaves the Indians will kill him. Much anxiety exists about the Navajos and their unquiet state.

TELEGRAPHIC

THE SAME GOOD NEWS

Continued Improvement of the President.

The Army Worm and Its Ravages.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The president has had another good day and is doing well to-night. Dr. Rayburn said to the associated press reporter to-night that he had just examined the president and he was getting along finely. Some small fragments of his coat and shirt were discharged from the wound this morning. They were very small, but when put under a microscope the difference in fibre could be plainly seen. This was the first fragment of clothing that has come from the wound. The discharge of these pieces of cloth shows that the wound is drained out to the bottom. The wound continues to heal nicely inside. Dr. Reyburn said it was impossible to say just when the president would be able to take his sea voyage, but the surgeons hope to get him aboard the ship soon, and that if the present rate of progress continues, the president will probably be able to start in three or four weeks. Reyburn also said the president is gaining strength slowly, but surely. The surgeons consider him now pretty well out of danger.

MARYVILLE, Mo., July 21.—At a quarter to 10 o'clock this morning the Talbot boys were brought in by Sheriff Toel from St. Joe. Quite a crowd had collected at the depot, which received them with ominous silence. They were wretchedly dressed, Charles being without a coat. They were shackled hand and foot.

The sheriff and guards at once got them in an omnibus, in which they were driven to the jail. Their faces are white with prison pallor, but their pluck is splendid. The whole party was in excellent spirits, and the two condemned laughed with the rest when a joke was got off. They complained of the heat, and asked eagerly about Cole's circus, which had just struck the town. They seemed more interested in the gorgeous posters upon which they commented, than in the hill crest upon which they die to-morrow. Last night they made another confession, in which they utterly deny that either had anything to do with the shooting, and Chas. told a correspondent this morning that the other confession was written for them by Dawson and signed by the promise that it would free them in five years. Being asked if there was anything they wanted done, Albert said: "For God's sake, telegraph the governor, and beg him to stay the execution for only two weeks, and in that time we can prove that we had nothing to do with the murder."

Being told that there was positively no hope, that they would die as soon as noon came, Charles then said:

"Well, what must be must be. We will die game anyhow, but if we had not taken Dawson's advice, we would not be here now."

Both of the boys have embraced the Catholic faith and find much consolation in its ministrations. Their last confession is evidently a desperate play of their last card. They want two weeks more of life. It is very probable that they will make another confession on the scaffold to-morrow, if not to-night.

Soon after reaching the jail their younger brother, Trump Talbot, came in, and the meeting was very affectionate. He told them that their mother and Zulea Lewis, the girl to whom Albert Talbot is engaged to be married, were in town and were coming to see them in the afternoon. Miss Lewis is a tall and not particularly handsome woman, who has already been married, but subsequently divorced. Out of the jail she seems to take matters philosophically enough. They were to have been married about the end of the coming October. The mother is very badly broken. A strong guard is maintained over the prisoners, one man being in the cell with them, and a number of others inside the jail. It is almost impossible for them to realize their fate. It is said that they recently beguiled a cat into their cell and hung it to see how the thing worked. The meeting between Albert Talbot and Zulea Lewis was a touching one. The girl was dressed in a yellow linen suit, which set off her form well. Her face is a pleasing one. She broke down altogether when young Talbot came to the bars, and both she and Jennie Talbot, who came with her, cried bitterly. The prisoner kissed his sweetheart through the cage, and the sister kissed both the boys. They remained together nearly two hours talking very earnestly and mournfully.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—There is very little new to be said of the condition of things at the white house to-day. The president has continued to slowly improve, and is pronounced by his physicians to be getting along in the most satisfactory manner possible. His night's rest was unbroken, and his watcher, Col. Rockwell, says he slept almost continuously from 11 to 5 o'clock. He had no fever during that time, and only awoke to change to a more comfortable position. For breakfast he ate his usual toast soaked with beef juice, which was supplemented with the boiled breast of chicken. The latter was granted by his doctors in partial conformance with the president's earnest request for solid food. He was allowed to talk freely with his wife and others who were present from time to time.

Dr. Bliss says he was more than usually cheerful this morning and this evening. The same physician says that he has passed an excellent day and is progressing swimmingly.

The sick room presents a very pleasant appearance nowadays. Plenty of flowers decorate the windows and beautiful vases filled with fragrant roses from the conservatory and arranged by Mrs. Garfield gladden the sick man's eyes, being replaced with fresh ones daily. He requested to see the members of his cabinet when they called, for the first time since his prostration, but this was refused point-blank by his medical attendants. Dr. Bliss informed him that his rapidly improving condition would soon admit of this, but not now. In a few days he might see not only the cabinet, but others. At present it was thought proper not to hazard anything by premature excitement. Mrs. Garfield was permitted to read the newspapers to him as usual, and he made humorous comments upon the imaginative reports of the correspondents, but seemed more interested in the editorial comments of the leading journals. He is now confident of his own recovery, and from a sentence now and then betrays his meditations upon the future of his administration.

WE announced a few days since that Dr. G. S. Allison had sold his property with a view to removing to some place west where there was assurance of better health for himself and family than here. Macon county has met with a very serious loss by the removal of Dr. Allison, and it does not require the powers of a seer to predict that the people with whom he may make his future home will not be long in discovering that they have gained. For several years past the doctor has been president of the Macon County Medical Society, which is undoubted evidence of the estimate placed on him by his professional brethren. And we learn from physicians with whom we have conversed on the subject, that he is a general surgeon of first-class ability, and in that part of surgery more especially called for in the treatment of females, that he is pre-eminent. His knowledge is accurate, his judgment clear and sound, and his executive ability not only above the average but strictly first-class. Wherever the doctor may go he has our best wishes. Fair health will assure him professional success in any community.

THIS morning Fire Chief Hewes received an invitation for the Decatur Fire Department to attend the Fourth Michigan State Firemen's Tournament, to be held at Coldwater, Sept. 7th and 8th. The total premiums aggregate $1400. The sweepstakes prize for hose companies is $200 and one-third of the gate money. The run is 40 rods, or 220 yards, and lay 300 feet of hose in one continuous line, attach hose to hydrant, break couplings 200 feet from hydrant and attach pipe. It is not likely that our boys will visit Coldwater, as the sweepstakes prize is a little too small. Nothing less than $1000 is any sort of a temptation to Decatur firemen.

CHARLES POTTER, the youthful till-tapper who was an accomplice of Charles Hines in going through Roach & McReynolds cash drawer to the tune of $10 or more, had a preliminary examination before Justice Albert last evening and was held to bail in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the December term of the circuit court. But for the testimony of the Hines boy Potter would have been discharged. The boys were taken back to jail but will probably give bail in a few days. The mothers of the unfortunate lads were at the trial.

Louie and his little brother, both barefoot, were in the back yard cutting kindling when the ax accidentally fell, edge downward, and came near cutting off three toes on Louie's right foot. The little toe was nearly cut off and the others were seriously hurt. The family physician was summoned, who dressed the wounds The boy is comfortable, but very quiet to-day

A Tie All Around.

The Blue Mound correspondent of the Macon Independent writes that paper this week as follows "The Blue Mound town board is still a tie on the license question There is a great big man who comes here once a month from Moawequa to see about license. A NOTABLE SOCIAL EVENT.

The Brilliant Party Given Last Night in Honor of Miss Mattie Leidigh, of Chicago.

The large and elegantly appointed residence of Ald. and Mrs. D. S. Shellabarger on Eldorado street, last night, was a blaze of light, and the scene of Miss Adele Shellabarger's initial party in her new home, given in honor of her friend and guest, Miss Mattie Leidigh, the accomplished daughter of a well-known lumber merchant of Chicago. Miss Leidigh has been in Decatur for nearly two weeks and during her stay here she has become acquainted with most of our young people with whom she is very popular. Nearly all of her new found friends were at the reception and were received with graceful cordiality by the young hostess and her parents, who succeeded admirably in making all feel perfectly at home. Miss Leidigh and Miss Adele were attired in pure white, and the lady guests looked their prettiest in elegant toilets ornamented with natural flowers, brilliant diamonds and other jewelry, while the gents appeared in their best. The evening was given up to popular parlor games, such as loto, and numerous pretty favors were bestowed upon the lucky ones. During the evening the Misses Meta Batteiger, Jessie Fenton, Laura Einstein and Jeanette Bowers favored the company with well rendered and beautiful vocal and instrumental selections, which added much to the enjoyment of the occasion, and promenading through the parlors, on the verandas, and lawn was indulged in by those who desired to engage in quiet chats. At a fitting hour a choice collection of elegant refreshments were served party fashion. Altogether the party was one of the pleasantest affairs of the kind that has ever been given in the city, and will long be remembered as such.

Below we give a complete list of those present:

Mattie Leidigh and E. B. Judson.
Adele Shellabarger and Cyrus Randolph.
Jessie Fenton and Chas. Tyler.
Meta Batteiger and George R. Dodson.
Laura Einstein and Burt Hardy.
Nettie Large and Herb Bartholomew.
Jennie Rogers and Ed. Powers.

News from Gen. Moore.

Last evening Mr. James Moore received a letter from his father, General Moore, recently appointed U. S. Consul at Callao, Peru, and our reporter was permitted to peruse it. The letter was written at Aspinwall and was dated July 10th. We give place to the following extracts from the letter, which will be of interest to our readers: "We got to Aspinwall about noon to-day and all are very well. Mother has not looked so well for years; she was the only woman on board who did not get sea-sick. All our party escaped seasickness except Nellie, and she was sick but little. This is a miserable, nasty place, with nothing attractive except the splendid tropical scenery. We had an exceedingly smooth sea till we passed Cuba and Hayti and entered the Caribean Sea; thence on we had a rough sea. We have really experienced nothing an pleasant since we left New York I will write more fully from Panama, where we shall be detyed two days." The party, which is composed of Gen. and Mrs J H. Moore, Harry Moore, Mrs. Nellie Moore and others, should have left Panama on the 12th inst., and should have arrived at Callao on the 20th The party left New York on July 2d They reached Panama by rail.

12 Bushels to the Acre.

William Voorhies, jr., member of the Illinois State Board of Agriculture from the 14th district, informs the department that he has harvested 150 acres of wheat, averaging about twelve bushels, which is much better than the average crop in Piatt county. The chintz bug, he says, has done considerable damage to late wheat, and is now at work upon the corn, but it is thought that it will not do as much damage as was effected in wheat.

All Lovely Again.

Yesterday Mr. C. O. Judson, the Decatur agent for the P., D. & E., and Illinois Central companies, received official notice that on and after July 21st Newton, Ill., in Jasper county, on the line of the Peoria, Decatur & Evansville Railway, would be recognized by that company. Thus has ended the fruitless war between the people of Newton and the P., D. & E. officials. The road has placed a station agent at Newton, replaced its telegraph lines in the office, and now passenger and freight traffic has been resumed just as if nothing had happened. All that has been learned about the settlement is that the difference has been amicably adjusted.

WHY IT IS "ALL LOVELY AGAIN."

The following special telegram appeared in the Globe-Democrat of to-day:

NEWTON, Ill., July 21.—The trouble with the P., D. & D. railroad at this point seems to be about settled. On last Monday C. L. Bradbury, general manager; G. R. Cobleigh, superintendent; John B. Cohr and J. P. Robinson, attorneys of the road, were arrested and taken before Judge Jones, at Robinson, to answer for contempt in disobeying the injunction issued by the circuit court. They had a hearing on Tuesday, and were bound over to appear before the circuit court at its next December term; Cohr and Bradbury in the sum of $2,500 each, and Cobleigh and Robinson each in the sum of $500. Afterward an agreement was entered into between the officers of the road and the state's attorney of Jasper county, by which the railroad company is to pay $400 penalty and all costs accrued, and to resume business at this point at once, the same as though no trouble had occurred. Accordingly all trains were stopped at this station yesterday, and the telegraph and express offices will open to-day.

FREE CONCERT,

And Grand Illuminated Stereoscopic Exhibition This Evening.

Something That Will be of Interest to All the People.

Mr. W. E. Crossley has secured the services of the Decatur band, which will be present this evening at the St. Nicholas hotel balcony and discourse the popular airs of the day, while Prof. Abt will entertain the spectators with a series of wonderful zoological illustrations, exhibiting many of the rare animals and birds to be seen in the great Forepaugh show, which is to exhibit here Wednesday, July 27. The leading features of the circus will also be produced, and views of famous places, portraits of illustrious women, reproductions of works of art, views of great cities, lakes, rivers and mountains, and last, but by no means least, a full-sized view of Forepaugh's famous Queen of Beauty, the "handsomest woman in America," will be exhibited by means of the stereopticon. It is a free show. The concert and exhibition will be given from the St. Nicholas balcony this (Friday) evening, commencing at 8 o'clock Prof. Abt has been secured by Mr. Forepaugh at an enormous salary.

August 10th is the Date.

An old soldier writes the Jacksonville Journal:

"We'll rally from the hillside,
We'll rally from the plain."

The official call for the soldiers' reunion has gone forth. The date is fixed for August 10th. The president of the Central Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' Association, Captain Philip Lee, has been working with commendable zeal to make the forthcoming gathering of our Nation's defenders a success, both in point of numbers and enjoyment. Now let every patriot of every county belonging to the Association lend his energy to make this reunion the grandest that ever took place in Illinois. It can be done. With the veterans of Illinois there is no such word as fail. They were invincible in war, let them not be less so in peace

Ex Governor Oglesby is the vice president of the Association for Macon county, and all old soldiers in this region are expected to go to Jacksonville on the 10th

Two More Excursions

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Annie Baker of Springfield, is in the city visiting friends.

Corwin Smith will leave for St. Louis and Chicago to-morrow morning early.

Justice Lowry has been confined to his home for a week by illness, but is reported better to-day.

Mr and Mrs. Charles W. Boardman, Sr., of St. Louis, are in the city assisting their son and his wife in making preparations to go to housekeeping here.

John Quinlan departed for Philadelphia and New York last night, and while east he will make large purchases for Abel & Locke's carpet house. He will visit Atlantic City, N. J., and remain there about two weeks

Captain Allen was very restless last night and is weaker to-day than formerly He is suffering from a lingering fever drinks water continually and says he will not live long He was 75 years of age last March.

Mrs. Sarah Thatcher, who has been quite ill for some time past, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Randall, is reported worse this afternoon, and the gravest fears are entertained by her friends

Henri Hall, of Leadville, Col., arrived in the city last evening from New York, and paid his respects to a few of his many Decatur friends and acquaintances, formed while here last winter in company with Brad Dubois. Mr. Hall is on his way to Leadville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Millikin arrived home this morning after a month's absence in New York, Washington and other eastern cities. Mr. Millikin was in Washington on the Monday following the attempted assassination of the President.

Ed. Judson on Monday next will retire from his position as bill clerk in the Illinois Central freight office, and will at once enter the grain and commission office of W. L. Dumont & Co., in opera block, taking charge of the books of that firm.

Rev. Dr. R D. Harper, pastor of the North Broad street Presbyterian church at Philadelphia, arrived in the city this afternoon from the east He is here on a visit to his daughter, Mrs W. C Johns, and will probably remain in the city several days.

The following from the Springfield Journal of to-day refers to the son of Rev. W. H. Prestley, of this city: "James Presely, the prescription clerk at J. B. Brown's drug store, was overcome by heat yesterday, but under proper medical treatment has sufficiently recovered to be considered out of danger.

Charles W. Boardman, Jr., late of St. Louis, son of C. W. Boardman, traveling agent of the Hannibal & St. Joe Railway, has come to Decatur to live. He has accepted a position in the Illinois Central freight office here under Agent Judson, as bill clerk, and resides with his young wife and child in the dwelling on North Edward street, lately occupied by Mrs. John Slaughter.

Macon Independent: John W. Phillips, of Decatur, called on his way home from Shelbyville and Pana. He is still in business with Haworth & Sons, of Decatur. He is also improving his fine 160-acre farm, one mile north of town, in the very finest manner. A beautiful barn and house with all its outside improvements makes it one of the most valuable in the county.

Roswell Bills, Secretary of the Peoria County Agricultural Society, writes to Secretary Fisher concerning the State Fair, to be held at that place, as follows: "Work is progressing on the grounds, and everything will be in order We have purchased more land just above the entrance, which will give us plenty of room for stalls and pens. The old building is torn down, and the new one is well along, and will be a great improvement."

Wm. Whitaker, of Macon, was in the city to-day and purchased one of the celebrated Haines Cabinet Grand Upright Pianos at the popular music house of C. B. Prescott. It is an acknowledged fact that Mr. P is selling more Pianos and Organs than any house in the west except Chicago "First-class Instruments Sold at Bottom Prices," is his motto and is sure to win.

Charles Kepley paid us a call last evening, having just returned from Braidwood, Ill., where he went to learn the particulars of the accidental death of his son Willie on the 16th. He found that the accident occurred about as related in these columns on Monday and Tuesday, and that his son had received the best of attention from the three local surgeons who remained with the boy up to the moment of his death. They did everything in their power to save him, but he was so badly mangled that their efforts were fruitless. He died in less than three hours after he was run over by the cars, but retained consciousness up to the last moment. The boy was dragged 40 feet under the moving train, and was found with both legs cut off and badly bruised about the body. Mr. Kepley desires us to return the thanks of himself and family to the good people of Braidwood for their tender sympathy and acts of kindness in caring for Willie during his sufferings

THE BROKER KINGS.

"Gath" was talking the other day with some Wall street speculators, and thus reports what they said about Keene and Gould:

The conversation then turned to the principal operators. On gentleman asserted that in the year 1880 Keene had made $11,000,000.—"Well," said the broker, "he had great losses that year, too. My judgment is that Keene is worth $7,000,000 at present. Before leaving California, according to his account, he had $3,600,000. If I am correct in my statement, therefore, he has just about doubled his fortune since he came east, five or six years ago."

"How much is Gould worth?" asked the person present.

"Gould," said Col. Logan, "can not be worth less than $50,000,000. He is the most remarkable man that has ever been seen in Wall street, not excepting Commodore Vanderbilt. You see, they cannot only take his cue throughout the other states of the Union, but he can raise money in New York by the millions. He has made money for so many men there is confidence in him such as no leader in Wall street has got. A man of his breadth of view has not left himself naked on any side. As far as these cats and dogs are concerned," said the broker, "which have been forced up to an extravagant price, I don't believe that there would be any sale for them at all if there should be a rapid panic in the country. It has been a very common thing here to take some old southern railroad, put a million of money in it, and then stock and bond it up to six or seven millions, and hold it up to that figure in the quotations. It won't survive a spell of sharp weather."

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup, and whooping cough, at once. Mothers do not be without it. For lame back, side, or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by Henry Smith, druggist.

Sold by Henry Smith.

Whose complexion betrays some humiliating imperfection, whose mirror tells you that you are Tanned, Sallow and disfigured in countenance, or have Eruptions, Redness, Roughness or unwholesome tints of complexion, we say use Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

It is a delicate, harmless and delightful article, producing the most natural and entrancing tints, the artificiality of which no observer can detect, and which soon becomes permanent if the Magnolia Balm is judiciously used.
